FIA Japan Elects 2015 Board Members, Appoints Officers

TOKYO--The Futures Industry Association Japan (FIA Japan), the leading financial industry association in Tokyo with a focus on derivatives, held its Annual General Meeting on June 2, and elected new Board Members for FY 2015. Following the AGM, the board members elected their new officers for FY 2015.

Mitch Fulscher, one of the founding directors of FIA Japan in 1988, has stepped down as President & CEO after 18 years of dedicated service heading the Association. The Board of Directors thanks Mitch for his many years of contribution. He will continue to support FIAJ activities as Chairman Emeritus and serving as Advisor to the Executive Committee.

Also, Walter Lukken, President & CEO of the Futures Industry Association (Washington DC) will join as a board member of FIA Japan. Mr. Lukken has served many years as the leader of FIA, as well as having served as the US Commodity Futures Trading Commission Chairman. We welcome Walt to the board and we look forward to further enhancing our collaboration with FIA in the years to come.
